OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS

To the Advertiser

Emilio Zapata yesterday demanded the surrender of the City of Mexico. The message was brought by a courier under cover of darkness and taken to the minister of war.

It is believed that lack of artillery alone prevents the Zapatistas from attacking the capital.

The government has at last awakened to the seriousness of the situation and as many of the capital troops as can be spared have been rushed out to the defense of the threatened suburbs.

A clash between soldiers of the United States army and those of the Mexican federal troops occurred at Presidio, Texas, last evening, and as a result one Mexican soldier is dead of his wounds. No American was injured.

According to accounts several Mexican soldiers made an effort to cross the border, but were challenged by a detail of American troops.

Before his death the Mexican soldier admitted that he and a companion fired the first shots, but excused his crossing the border by claiming that he was carrying a note for delivery on the American side.

Pacific coast citizens will be heard on the exclusion of Asiatics, when a house committee resumes consideration of the immigration bill January 22. Witnesses are expected from San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and other cities.

Mayor John F. Fitzgerald of Boston yesterday announced his withdrawal from the mayoralty contest. Illness is given as the reason.

Mrs. Mary Roberts Rhinehart, novelist, playwright and former nurse in a Pittsburgh hospital, is quarantined with diphtheria at her home in Glen Osborne, a fashionable suburb of Pittsburgh.

Dr. William C. Bartrum of the staff of St. Luke's hospital, died at his home in Newburg, N. Y., yesterday, from blood poisoning, which was received from a tiny wound in his finger, made with a needle while engaged in an operation at the hospital.

Prof. J. F. Christian Ringwald, professor of music at Oxford university, at Oxford, Ohio, yesterday asked a divorce from his wife, also a teacher of music, alleging she wore "inappropriate and flashy colored gowns in society events and being negligent in regard to her personal appearance, wounding his artistic feelings."

Lieut. Richard T. Taylor, U. S. A., and his bride, formerly Miss Marion Breiz of Dobbs Ferry, New York, were married yesterday at the Presidio, San Francisco, and departed today for a short honeymoon trip through California. On their return they will sail for Honolulu, where Lieutenant Taylor will join his command.

The Grand Duke Boris of Russia, a cousin of the Czar of Russia, testified in rebuttal yesterday in the Lord Chief Justice's court in London to allegations of misconduct and cowardice brought against him in a magazine article, for which he sued the Frank A. Munsey Company for libel. The suit was settled out of court December 2.

The Grand Duke testified that he had been constantly under fire for a fortnight in Manchuria during the Japanese war in 1904.

The president will be a prisoner in the White House for at least a week longer, according to orders from his physicians. He was making such progress some days ago that it was freely announced he would be out shortly, but the news today is that he will have to remain indoors. The president's physicians describe his cold as "obstinate, but not serious."

William F. McCombs, chairman of the National Democratic Committee, gave his reasons for declining the appointment as ambassador to France.

"The post entails the expenditure of about $150,000 a year," he said. "It pays $17,500. I could not afford to accept it. I am going back to the practice of law and I hope to make some money."

Postmaster-general Burleson is supervising the draft of legislation for the taking over of telephone systems throughout the country as an adjunct to the postal service.

In connection with this service the government contemplates the installation of a telegraph system on telephone wires and equipment to carry both services.

It is estimated that the acquisition of the telephone lines of the country will cost $300,000,000. The purchase money is to be raised through a bond issue charged against the postal service of the government.

Each of the fourteen thousand men employed on the subway and elevated lines of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company of New York will receive a $5 gold piece for a Christmas present next Thursday.

L. Tenney Peck, president of the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Company, called from San Francisco yesterday for Honolulu on the steamer Mongolia. He reported that the Rapid Transit franchise extension bill is progressing in congress, but that an entire new deal was under way, as the Honolulu municipality will eventually own the system. Each fare paid now, he said, partly goes to pay for the system. A sinking fund is to be raised by the municipality to take it over.

king, who purchased it for eight francs from an impoverished nobleman living in the country near St. Petersburg, Russia, says a Paris dispatch.

Secretary Garrison asked Attorney-general McKeen yesterday to rule on the question as to whether John Burke, manager of the Panama Railroad commissary department, whose transactions are under investigation, is a government employee or the employee of a private corporation.

Upon the attorney-general's opinion will depend the action of the government at the conclusion of an inquiry into charges that Burke has profited by receiving gifts or commissions from persons selling supplies to the canal commissary department.

It is proposed to commemorate the residence of Benjamin Franklin in Bartholomew Close, London, where he worked in a printing shop, by placing a tablet in the Lady Chapel of the Church of St. Bartholomew the Great, Smithfield.

"SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste, and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without gripping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile, and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by the "California Fig Syrup Company," advertisement.

LADIES OF HONOLULU furnished the recipes for the Honolulu Cook Book. These guarantees of good cooking have been compiled from time to time in the Home Department of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin. It's a splendid Christmas present.

Mrs. Newlywed—"Why, yes, I'll take care of your dog while you are away!" Mrs. Jones—"Thank you so much—and be careful of him, won't you—never give him any of your cooking without first trying it on your husband."
